That Losing Feeling: And Other Stories

Synopsis

An attorney who has never lost a case finally tastes defeat, and it frees him ... A young man falls in love with his soulmate only to be separated from her by family and fate ... A mother and son try to connect with each other as they both struggle in the cutthroat culture of Hollywood's Golden Era ... A mysterious fortune teller casts an unexpected spell on a worldly photographer, changing both of their lives forever. Each of these stories come alive in the first collection of short fiction by Christopher Alexandrov.

Customer Reviews

He paints extraordinary scenes and reveals deeply engaging characters and deceptively complex stories with every sentence. I could close my eyes and watch the stories unfold and was utterly transported. Each story breathes its own life, evocative, from scenes of seemingly simple life to deeply complex and moving relationships, all drawing the reader in subtly yet profoundly. I found the 'Old Hollywood' story nothing short of extraordinary in its understated beauty and richly layered, sometimes ominous subtext. Yet it was simply and terrifically sweet. Bittersweet even. And just lovely. Plus it takes a truly great writer to bring oneself to root for an attorney....

Christopher Alexandrov debuts his fiction work with writing that is authentic and fast-paced. Perhaps most enjoyable was the view he gave into his characters' thought patterns--insights that it seemed surprised the characters themselves. I can't wait to read more from this author!

A wonderful collection of short stories that had me burning the midnight oil and unable to put the book down. Christopher is a skilled writer who paints beautiful pictures of different worlds and crafts them into the most interesting stories. I cannot wait to read his future works!

I found the details in the stories to very well done. Descriptions of the method of making tea or photography, as examples, made the stories have real depth. Truly enjoyed reading this collection on my vacation.
