Customer Reviews

I am so glad I found author Erin Trejo and her Fallen Angel's series. I may have read them out of sequence, but that didn't make them any less great! Tank, Cher and Bella's story is such a great one. Tank, the VP of the Fallen Angel's MC gets his daughter, Bella back after wondering for so many years where his ex Candy had taken his daughter. Bella has developed an attitude, and a smart mouth, and Tank is a bit at odds of how to deal with a beautiful teenage daughter, but he is so glad to have Bella back he is determined to work this all out. Tank's current girlfriend, Cher has had some history with other MC's but she is not all that familiar with the lifestyle despite the fact her best friend, Jada is married to Creed the Angel's President. Tank is taken with Cher the moment he is introduced to her, and is surprised to find that he is loving watching her smile, and interact with Bella, although they didn't start off very well. Dougie, a member of the Angel's is killed by a high powered rifle from an access road that few people know about. This is such a mystery, but when Tank and Creed discover that he was killed because he was trying to get Bella out of a rival MC and bring her home to Tank the war is about to commence. Since the shooter was a sharp shooter they needed to find someone military, but it all still didn't add up. Cher is getting phone calls from her ex, and Tank demands to know what the situation is with her and him. Cher finally comes clean and tells Tank, tearfully that Thomas Finch locked her in an apartment and made her stop going to college and separated her from her family and friends. He is the son of a rich man in town that keeps covering up for his disappearing son.
