I Call My Brothers

I CALL MY BROTHERS

by Jonas Hassen Khemiri
translated by Rachel Willson-Broyles

EVERON MODERN PLAYS

Synopsis

A car has exploded. A city has been crippled by fear. Amor wanders around the city, doing his best to blend in. Heâ€™s going to exchange a drill head. Heâ€™s going to call his brothers. Heâ€™s going to stop stalking Valeria and take care of his long-since-dead grandma. Most important of all: he must not attract any suspicious glances. But what is normal behaviour? Who is a potential perpetrator? And how many times can Shavi call in one day? During 24 intense hours we find ourselves in Amorâ€™s head, where the lines between criminal and victim, love and chemistry, and fantasy and reality become blurrier and blurrier.

Customer Reviews

Terrific play. I've ordered more from this author. Provocative and intelligent rendering of probable social schizophrenia.
